

Matured over several years, this robust performer has been enjoyed by the English for some time.

Australians may find it hard to swallow due to its bitter aftertaste, which can last for four years or more.

Best served cold with humble pie or barbecued wings.

Available from:

Down Underwins

thrasher