

JUNIOR OPTIMISTS' REGATTA AT CYC

At the end of their sailing course these crews look a good deal happier than at the outset several weeks ago. Seasoned sailors (from left) Patrick Hill, Andrew Darné, Chad Lingard, Nicolette Holl, Carina Acland, Julie Greig, Donali Holl, Warren Holl, and Vianthes Pillay and De Wet Snyders enjoyed the regatta despite if a cloudy day.

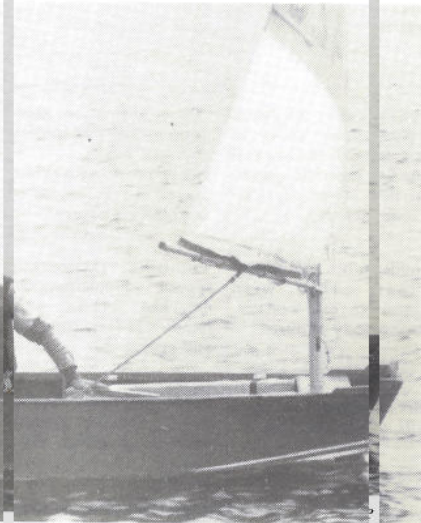

"Who said it would all be plain sailing?" Looking somewhat disillusioned Kenric Owen keeps a hand firmly on the tiller.

Colette Burgess was pipped at the post in this race by Paul Alexander (left).

Jason Burgess (nearest the camera) has the edge on his competitors, Gerald Mayer, in the black Optimist and Laurette McCullagh.

Nicolette Holl makes waves forcing two male competitors to look to their sails. Clayton Summers in the black boat, took line honours over Morné Snyders.

The solitude of the lone yachtsman, Allen Owen.
